

How to Financially Prepare For a Baby Checklist

- Review company benefits for maternity/paternity leave
- Review health insurance coverage for you (and baby)
- Calculate how much money is needed to cover medical bills and time off work (loss of income)
- Create list of baby needs (just the essentials)
- Create a sinking fund for baby expenses
- Discuss child care options (daycare, nanny, family, other)
- Discuss future saving options
(529, UGMA/UTMA, HYSA, other)

Meet Alli

Hi!

I'm Alli, the founder, and CEO of FinanciALLI Focused. I help women and couples save for what they need while spending on what they want (no deprivation here).

I still remember vividly the moment we added up ALL of my husband's debt and the total was $154k. Panic set in.

How were we going to pay this off WHILE saving for our wedding, cash-flowing school tuition, and still going to football games? I was not willing to sacrifice everything. I wanted to keep the things we valued in our budget.

So we did.

We created a plan that worked for us and we were able to pay off $36k in one year while paying for our wedding, cash flowing school tuition, going on weekly date nights, and keeping season football tickets in our budget.

I became debt-free, as an individual, at 25 so it SUCKED going back into debt. Especially SIX FIGURES of debt.

I am SO proud of where we are today and now my mission is to help others feel GOOD about their finances and find BALANCE so they can do ALL the things that are important to them.

I feel confident with my finances. I have mastered the strategies and skills to build wealth, find balance, and live the life I want. I want to wake up every single day excited to work. I never want to feel guilty about purchasing things or experiences I value. I want to continue building massive wealth to set up myself and my family.

My goal is to help YOU feel the same way.

I KNOW if I can do this, so can you. I can't wait to learn more about you and do this together!
